MEDLEY.

Oh! Absalom! my son! my son!

His face was white as snow,

He stole a pig and away he ran,

To the bay of Biscay, O!

The boy stood on the burning deck,

And smoked his pipe of clay,

And let his money on a bob tailed nag

When the moon had gone away.

I'm lonely since my mother died—

To a fool's round her still—

So I'll peel a bag of taters, O!

With the sound of Bunker Hill.

It is the hour when from the boughs,

I kissed my Molly Ann,

So ran, Elisha, and hurry up Pomp;

Yes, or any other man.

Oh! what are the wild waves saying,

I cried the long night through,

And a voice replied far up the height,

A little more elier, too.

The harp of nature's advent strung,

Is coming through the rye;

Then kiss me quick and go my honey,

Said the spider to the fly.

My Willie on the dark blue sea,

And with five hundred thousand more,

My days are gilling sympathy by,

To the old Kentucky shore.

At the end of half an hour my guest not returning, I went again

to the stable, thinking he might have found his way thither to give per- sonal attention to the wants of his horse.

"Before going out, from mere force of habit—for we were as yet unfamiliar with either thieves or po- licing—I took the precaution of putting the stranger's watch in a drawer in which I kept my own v-l

AGURMAN'S STORY.

BY JUDGE CLARK.

We had been out twenty-four hours, and stood eleven to one.

The case was a very plain one—at least eleven to one.

A murder of peculiar atrocity had been committed; and though no eye

had witnessed the deed, circum- stances pointed to the prisoner's guilt with unerring certainty.

The recusant juror had stood out from the first. He acknowledged the agency of the proofs, confessed

his inability to reconcile the facts with the defendant's innocence, and yet, on every vote went steadily for acquittal.

His conduct was inexplicable. It could not result from a lack of intel- ligence; for while he spoke but lit- tle, his words were well chosen, and evinced a thorough understanding of the case.

Though still in his prime of man- hood, his locks were prematurely

white, and his face wore a singu- larly sad and thoughtful expression.

He might be one of those who entertained scruples as to the right of society to inflict the death pen- alty. But no; it was not that; for,
